Dr. Bob Chaparala

M.S., M.B.A., Ph.D., PfMP, PgMP, PMP.

About Bob

Before beginning a full-time career as a tutor, Bob Chaparala was a CEO, Program Director, Program Manager, and Consultant for numerous Fortune 500 companies. He holds a Masters degree in Mechanical Engineering, a Ph.D. in Philosophy, an MBA and a Masters in Applied Mathematics, and many other certifications that have taken countless hours of hard work and preparation to obtain.

Through his illustrious career as a tutor, professional, and student Bob Chaparala has understood what must be accomplished for any student to achieve their desired GMAT score. He has trained and prepared hundreds of students to improve their scores and attend the school of their choice. He strives to make math and GMAT preparation enjoyable for every student by teaching them to break down 700+ level problems into easy-to-understand concepts.

Though capable of teaching in a multi-student classroom setting, Bob Chaparala chooses to teach one-on-one to develop a unique study plan and relationship with every student. He understands that no two students are the same and can focus on the quantitative shortcomings of each student. Beyond the numbers, Bob Chaparala's tutoring aims to instill courage and self-confidence in every student so that with preparation and hard work, they can reach their goals in the GMAT and life.

– Terry Bounds, Cox School of Business, BBA Finance

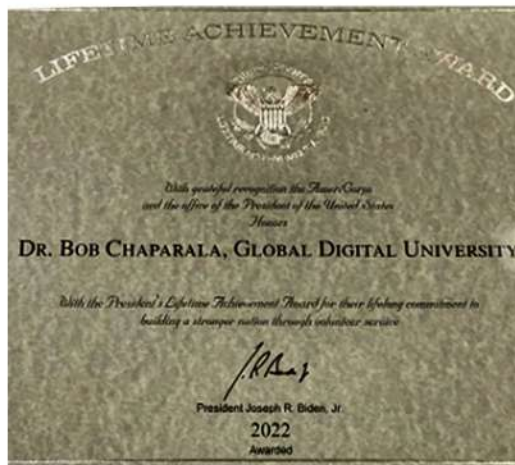

Bob Chaparala is an elite GMAT tutor with over 40 years of experience
Bob has a long track record of his students scoring 700+ and acceptance to Ivy League Universities and top MBA programs. Bob's strong background in Maths and Teaching Techniques stems from his interactive sessions with large number of students and academic achievements over decades

I am deeply humbled and extremely honored and grateful to be the recipient of this historic awards.
